WHEREAS, Aaron Levy, by deed dated the twentieth day of May, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, conveyed to Adam Harper, Esquire, and Frederick Henry, and to their successors in office, in trust to and for the use of the members with the church commonly called the Calvinist or Reformed church, also as a site for a church or churches or house of religious worship, school and burying ground, for the members in communion with the Calvinist church aforesaid, meaning and intending thereby the German Reformed church, more recently known as the Reformed church of Aaronsburg, then in the county of Northumberland, (now Centre county,) two certain lots of ground, numbered three hundred and forty-four and three hundred and forty-five, in the general plan of said town, containing about one-half acre strict measure, a full description of which is contained in the said deed recorded at Bellefonte, in and for the county of Centre, in deed book M, page one hundred and ninety, et cetera :

And whereas, Simon Gratz and Hyman Gratz, by deed dated the sixth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two, conveyed to John Neidigh and Philip Dinges, elders of the Presbyterian congregation of Aaronsburg, or in the additional language of the deed, to the said John Neidigh and Philip Dinges, trustees, and to their successors in office, to and for the only proper use and behoof of the said congregation, (Presbyterian aforesaid,) meaning and intending thereby the German Reformed church of Aaronsburg, (as in the former recited deed,) in the county of Centre, one certain lot of ground, adjoining lots numbers three hundred and forty-four and three hundred and forty-five, situated in the town and county aforesaid, and numbered in the general plan of said town, number three hundred and forty-three, containing about one-fourth of an acre strict measure, recorded at Bellefonte, in and for the county of Centre, in deed book M, page one hundred and ninety-two, et cetera :

And whereas, The above conveyances were never intended by the grantors for, nor have the said lots ever been held in possession by any persons or congregation under the denomination of Calvinists or Presbyterians properly so called, but all of the aforesaid purchasing parties have been officers and members of the German Reformed church, and the said lots have always been held, used and enjoyed by themselves and their successors as a church site and burying ground for and in the use of the communicant members of the aforesaid German Reformed congregation of Aaronsburg, inasmuch as the misnomer has occurred through a misapprehension of the proper style and title of the German Reformed church in the drawing up of the indentures; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the aforesaid deed, made the twentieth day of May, Anno Domini one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, by the said Aaron Levy, intended to and for the use of the said German Reformed church of Aaronsburg, in the present county of Centre, for the two lots numbers three hundred and forty-four and three hundred and forty-five, et cetera, and also the aforesaid deed, made the sixth day of June, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two, by the said Simon Gratz and Hyman Gratz, intended to and for the use of the said German Reformed church of Aaronsburg, in the county of Centre, for the lot numbered three hundred and forty-three, et cetera, shall be held and taken to be good and valid, and of the same force and effect as if the style of the aforesaid church had been correctly stated and set forth in the two deeds afore-mentioned, and the title to the three mentioned lots of ground be vested and confirmed absolutely in the said (now called) Reformed church or congregation of Aaronsburg, and to the successors and assigns thereof forever.

Joint Resolution

Memorializing congress in reference to the removal of obstructions in the Ohio river.

WHEREAS, At the last session of the legislature of Pennsylvania, by joint resolution, a committee consisting of three members of senate, and five members of the house of representatives, was appointed to visit Washington in conjunction with other committees, to urge upon congress the necessity of regulating the construction of bridges across the Ohio river:

Whereas, The committee appointed in pursuance of said joint resolution, submitted to the senate and house of representatives the subjoined report, which was received and adopted:

And whereas, Since the adjournment of the last legislature a company incorporated by the states of Ohio and Kentucky, with the qualified consent of congress, have commenced and carried towards completion a bridge across the Ohio river at city of Cincinnati, which it is alleged, when completed upon present plans, will be a fatal obstruction to the commerce of said river:

First. Because the said bridge when completed will have only an elevation of seventy-two feet above low water mark, and only seven or eight feet above extreme high water.

Second. Because the piers are so located as to obstruct the navigation at all stages, being in the low and high water channel.

Third. Because the draw in said bridge is out of the channel, and inaccessible to all crafts at all stages of the water.

Fourth. Because said bridge is in no respect conformable to either the letter or spirit of the act of congress from which they derive the authority for constructing it; therefore,

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives. That we adopt, as the sense of this body, the report of said committee, and request His Excellency, Hon. John W. Geary, gov-

Directing the attorney general to cause to be issued a writ of scire facias against the Erie Railway Company.

WHEREAS, By an act, entitled "An Act to authorize the New York and Erie Railroad Company to construct said road through a portion of Susquehanna county, in the state of Pennsylvania," approved the sixteenth day of January, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, and a supplement thereto, approved the twenty-sixth day of March, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, and a supplement thereto, approved the first day of April, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, said company was authorized, among other things, to construct its road up the valley of the river Delaware, in the county of Pike, within this commonwealth, upon the condition, among others, that said company should, by the first day of October, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, erect a permanent and substantial bridge across the river Delaware, between Sim's Clip and the Rope ferry at Matamoros, with a double track, one of which shall be suitable for laying a railroad track thereon, which bridge it shall be the duty of the said company forever thereafter to keep in good order and repair:

And whereas, Said company, in compliance with the said act and supplements, did construct its road in said county of Pike, and did also erect a bridge across said river:

And whereas, All the corporate property and franchises of said company, by virtue of the laws of the state of New York and of this commonwealth, became vested in and are now owned, possessed and enjoyed by the Erie Railway Company, subject to the duties, penalties, obligations, et cetera, imposed by the laws of this commonwealth on said New York and Erie Railroad Company:

And whereas, Said bridge, in the spring of the year, (March,) one thousand eight hundred and seventy, by reason of age and decay fell into said river, and the wood work thereof is utterly destroyed and gone, and the said Erie company, upon request by the citizens of this commonwealth residing along and near said river, in the vicinity of said bridge, to re-build the bridge across said river, neglect and refuse to re-build the same, the said Erie Railway Company claiming it is no longer legally liable to re-build and keep in good order and repair a bridge across said river, as is provided by said act and supplement:

And whereas, The refusal of said company to re-build and maintain said bridge is a source of great damage and annoyance to the citizens of this commonwealth, residing as aforesaid, compelling them to cross said river in scows, and portions of time in winter said river is impassable, as well as a direct violation upon the part of said company of the laws of this commonwealth; therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the attorney general of this commonwealth be and he is hereby directed, within thirty days from the passage of this resolution, to proceed against said Erie Railway Company, as is provided by said act and its supplements, by a writ of scire facias, for its neglect and refusal to re-build said bridge, and to keep in good order and repair a bridge across said river, in compliance with the provisions of said act of assembly and its supplements, and the same to prosecute to judgment with diligence.
